BFSI

The BFSI sector continued to be a strong recruiter, offering our students meaningful exposure across a wide spectrum of functions. Internship opportunities spanned Investment Banking, Equity Research, Finance Risk, Strategy Pricing & Interchange, Global Banking and Markets, Corporate Finance, Data Analytics, Asset Management, and Finance Transformation, among others. Students also contributed as Business Analysts, Credit Risk Analysts, and Product Managers, reflecting the sector's confidence in our students' ability to add value across both core and emerging areas of banking and financial services.

CONGLOMERATE, REAL ESTATE, MANUFACTURING, OIL & GAS, AUTOMOBILES, AVIATION

This sector offered our students a rich and varied internship experience, with opportunities cutting across Corporate Strategy, Digital Technology, Sales & Marketing, Finance, Supply Chain Management, Technical Account Management, and Manufacturing Operations. Students were placed across flagship programs of leading conglomerates, gaining firsthand exposure to large-scale business operations and cross-functional decision-making, further cementing the sector's position as one of the most diverse recruiting grounds for our students.

CONSULTING

Consulting firms offered internships across Business Consulting, Corporate Strategy, Financial Advisory, and Operations practices. Students worked closely alongside senior practitioners on live client engagements, gaining exposure to the full breadth of consulting work. The range and quality of roles offered by the sector continue to reflect its sustained appetite for analytical and strategically minded talent.

FMCG, FMCD AND RETAIL

Esteemed organizations in this sector extended internship opportunities to our students across Sales & Marketing, Finance, Supply Chain, Marketing & Retail Operations, Human Resources, and General Operations, among others. Students were placed across both frontline and functional roles, gaining hands-on exposure to the fast-paced consumer goods and retail landscape, reflecting the sector's continued trust in our students' ability to contribute meaningfully from day one.

MBA CORE RECRUITERS

IT / ANALYTICS, PHARMACEUTICALS, MEDIA, TELECOM AND OTHERS

Companies of this sector contributed a significant share of the offers, a notable portion of which were through the PPO route. Diverse roles were offered, such as Product Manager, Associate Technical Consultant, Business Consultant, Data Consultant, Cloud Sales Executive, and Business Analyst, in the domains of B2B Sales, Program Management, Mutual Fund Strategy, Customer Success, Strategic Marketing, Digital Initiatives, and more. The diverse selection of courses in the analytics area positions SBM, Mumbai as a leading choice for IT companies, ensuring that recruiters find students with skills who meet the industry standards.

STARTUP, LOGISTICS, AND E-COMMERCE

The thriving startup ecosystem across the country has opened doors to prestigious companies offering roles such as Product Manager, Program Manager, and Account Manager to our students. Staying aligned with evolving industry trends and organizational recommendations, we have integrated forward-looking courses such as "Industry 4.0" and "Data Exploration" into our curriculum, ensuring our students remain at the forefront of technological advancements. Additionally, leading e-commerce firms have extended opportunities in roles such as Management Trainee positions across domains including Lead Strategy & Growth and Data Analysis.

MBA HR

The MBA HR Program at SBM, NMIMS Mumbai is crafted to mentor students to become holistic HR managers with a robust blend of academic rigor and industry expertise. Our students were offered coveted Leadership Programs and sought-after roles in the HR Domain. Post internships, a significant number of students were placed through the PPO route across sectors. Our students have actively participated and won national-level corporate case competitions.
